A SERIOUS CHARGE.

John Carry, 18 years old, who says he is from Boston, Mass., but has been a nomad during the last five years, was brought to police headquarters last night charged with attempting to assault Eleanor O'Neil, aged 20, near Cherry Hill, Prince William county. Carry strenuously denies the charge. He says about 2 o'clock Monday afternoon he had gone to a spring to get a drink of water and had been there only a few minutes when a young woman appeared, and without thinking of the consequences he asked her what she was doing there. According to Carry, she became frightened and ran away. Carry told the police he was a theatrical man. He also said he had "hypnotic power" and had engaged in the occupation of a hypnotist.

The accused was taken before Justice J. W. Keys, at Cherry Hill, who sent him on to the grand jury. Special Officer O'Neil, who brought Carry to the station house in this city, left this morning with his prisoner for Manassas.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY.

The quarterly meeting of the Holy Name Union of Washington was held Monday evening in the parish hall of the Church of the Holy Name. The coming parade of the societies of Washington, Baltimore and Alexandria was the principal topic discussed. Encouraging reports were made by all delegates. It is estimated that at least 6,000 men will march in the parade Sunday, November 6, and that nearly 2,000 of these will come from localities outside of Washington. Thirteen hundred men are promised from Baltimore. Rev. Father Chas. J. Wilson, of the Holy Name Society of Alexandria, was present at the meeting Monday night, and said that at least 250 men from this city will be in line.

DRAWING CARDS.

Hand in hand as drawing cards at the new Opera House last night where the celebrated Crippen case as portrayed in pictures and Prof. Wood's trained animals, not forgetting to mention the talented Miss Harold and the entertaining German comedian. Long before 7 o'clock last night the streets adjacent to the Opera House were crowded with eager ones anxious to obtain admission and it was 10 o'clock before there was vacant standing room in the house. Praises too high could not be sounded about the intelligent animals of Prof. Wood. They are great. Tonight is the last night to see the monkey ride his tricycle. Tomorrow night the baseball fans have an inning in Melvin & Bond's sky scrapers in the business.

A SNAKE STORY.

The following snake story comes from Prince William county: A few days ago Mr. L. M. Cornwell, of Token, that county, after passing through a piece of wood and on returning home felt something crawling on his leg inside of his pantaloons. He involuntarily grasped the object and called to his wife to come. Afraid to release his hold he told his wife to cut the pantaloons which she did to the amazement of both Mr. and Mrs. Cornwell found that it was grasping the head of the moccasin snake which was over a foot long. So strong had been his grasp that the head of the snake had been crushed.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning: Alfred Pinkney, colored, charged with assaulting Mary Beander with a brick, was fined $10. Dolly Jenkins, colored, charged with improper conduct, was dismissed. Alice Galahorn, charged with being drunk in the street, was fined $5.

Scott, of the Richmond penitentiary, arrived at the jail in this city this morning and took charge of the following prisoners: Ellis West, recently convicted of highway robbery and sentenced to serve fifteen years; Henry Johnson, colored, robbery, one year; Jos. James, colored, horsestealing, one year; Jones McCain, colored, killing a mule, three years. The guard later left with the convicts for Richmond.

CARGO OF SWEET POTATOES.

The schooner Harman, from Cape Charles, Va., loaded with sweet potatoes, arrived at the Mutual Ice Company's wharf this morning. In bygone years many vessels from the Cape Charles neighborhood and the Eastern Shore of Maryland brought sweet potatoes to Alexandria, but during recent years, but few have come to this port.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Rollins have returned to their home in Charleston, S. C., after a pleasant visit of ten days to the parents of Mr. Rollins on Duke street. Captain and Mrs. J. V. Davis, who have recently been residing in Dunsmuir, Pa., are on a visit to Alexandria. They have met many friends, all of whom were glad to welcome them. Captain Davis, who was for many years superintendent of the National Cemetery in this city, spent the greater portion of his life here, and is as generally known as those native and to the manner born.

The many friends and admirers of the late Mr. A. S. Rollins, the popular first baseman of the Cardinals, will regret to learn that he is ill with typhoid fever at his home on upper Duke street. A speedy recovery is the earnest wish of all.

Mr. E. E. Downham has gone to Richmond to attend the meeting of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar. Rev. Frederick Albert Ernest Warren, of Chase City and Miss Lelia Reynolds, daughter of Mr. Francis H. Reynolds, of Fairfax county, were married at Christ Church at 3:30 p. m. Monday. Mr. Warren is an Englishman and was ordained last June at the Theological Seminary near this city at which institution he graduated at the last session.

PYTHIAN BAZAR.

The crowd increases each night at the Pythian bazaar now in progress at Odd Fellows' Hall. Many call at the gypsy tent to have their past, present and future made known. LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

The regular business meeting of the Allison Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Children's Home, on Duke street.

One of the largest importations received in this city in years direct from Japan has just arrived for Mr. R. E. Knight, who is now prepared to offer the same to the public at exceptionally low bargain prices.

In the free-for-all handicap at the horse show in Washington yesterday Mrs. Allen Potts came out victorious on Black Bird, a beautiful black mare, with snow white feet, and was blue-ribbon winner in an exciting contest among 36 rivals, while Merry Widow, a bay mare entered by Thomas F. Ryan, of Virginia and New York, secured second place, and Paradox was ridden into third place for the yellow ribbon by Mr. Walter R. Abell.

Once upon a time there lived in a faraway land, a wee little lad. Nobody seemed to know who he was; where he came from; or how he got there. Some said he came on a puff of wind. This is rather a funny way to get there, but you see, he might have come on an aeroplane (exit Mr. Stork). This wasn't one of our everyday little boys. Oh, no indeed! This kid was a wonder! He wouldn't eat anything but those irresistibly delicious Aunt Sausages, Puddings and Food Products. Blonheim's Aunt Sausage and Market.

The pleasant purgative effect experienced by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and the healthy condition of the body and mind which they create, makes one feel joyful. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

Reported Explosion on Gunboat.

Port au Prince, Hayti, Oct. 25.—A report reached here today that the Haitian gunboat Liberte has been lost off Fort de Paix following an explosion of her boilers. Twenty survivors are reported to have been rescued. More than fifty others, including a number of high ranking officers of the Haytian army are believed to have gone with the vessel. The Liberte left this port on Monday having on board a number of army officers who were proceeding to take command of the military divisions of the northern department in addition to the regular officers and crew of the gunboat. The cause of the disaster is as yet unknown.

Suicide in Richmond.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 26.—After making his mind to end his life Jacob Bloom, aged 37, proprietor of a small instalment plan house here, lost his nerve at the last moment and changed the aim of his revolver as he pulled the trigger. His repentance was in vain, for the bullet, entering the fleshy part of his right shoulder, severed an artery. Bloom bled to death.

The suicide crept out of bed without awaking his wife early this morning and went to the dining room. There he pointed a revolver at his heart, but as he pulled the trigger repented and changed the aim.

His wife was awakened by his piteous cries for help. He was hurried to the hospital but died a few moments after his arrival.

HISSED AT NEGRO'S FUNERAL.

Through Bishop Paret's decision, Miss Catherine Philpot has won her fight for the burial in the churchyard of St. James's Episcopal Church at My Lady's Manor, in Baltimore county, Md., of Charles Ridout, an aged negro, for forty years a servant in her family. The burial took place Monday, and Miss Philpot and her friends, including a number of persons socially prominent, were hissed by boys and those who had opposed the burial of a negro in the churchyard which contains the bodies of many members of distinguished Maryland families. As a result of the peculiar contest the congregation of the church is divided. Resignations in the vestry and other officers followed the votes of others in power to allow the old negro to lie in the graveyard, and when Miss Philpot finally gained the consent of the majority of the vestry to allow the negro to be buried there, an appeal by his widow was made to Bishop Paret, whose action in the case brought the fight to a close.

Eagle Swoops on Child.

Bola, Ill., Oct. 26.—An eagle with a spread of wings of eight feet was killed yesterday by Conrad Brummell, when the big "bird of freedom" swooped down on his daughter, Anna Brummell, 6 years old, as she was playing in a pasture. The child's screams aroused her father, who dropped the eagle after using both barrels of his shotgun. The eagle darted twice at the child, who ran for refuge beside a pet cow.

The Strike in Jersey City.

Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 26.—After a day and night of disorder, marked by arrests of strikers and their sympathizers, and the cutting of harness and overturning of loaded wagons, officials of the United States Express Company at 10:30 o'clock this morning telephoned to Gov. Fort at Trenton and asked him to call out the militia. The express company has not been able to move their wagons and claim the police of Jersey City and Hoboken have not given adequate protection to the non-union drivers and helpers.

The strike originated from the demand from the wagon helpers of the United States Express Company for an increase of five dollars a month. The company imported strike breakers from New York, but they have been unable to move any of the express matter, as despite the vigilance of the police, they have been attacked with clubs, stones, and even bullets, and driven from their wagons. The regular drivers, while insisting they are not on strike, have refused to take out the wagons without their experienced helpers. The result has been that clerks in the employ of the company have been pressed into service by the company to act as drivers.

After a telephonic conference between Mayor Witten, of Jersey City, and Governor Fort, who is at Spring lake, the former announced that the state's executive had declined to accede to the request of the United States Express Company's officials for militia.

Mayor Witten also announced that the Jersey City police have the strike situation in hand and the express company's officials are needlessly alarmed.

Death of Ex-Governor Chandler.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 26.—Former Governor Allen D. Chandler died today at the age of 74, at his home on Edgewood avenue after a long illness. He was one of the wealthiest men in the south. He served in Congress from 1882 to 1890; was secretary of state of Georgia, from 1894 to 1898 and was governor from 1898 to 1902. The highest skyscraper in the south was erected by him in this city. He made millions out of the manufacture of a much advertised "soft drink." He compiled the revolutionary records of Georgia.

Dropped Dead at a Dance.

Arlington, Mass., Oct. 26.—As a result of seeing her partner in a dance drop dead at her feet, Miss Mildred Carlton is being attended by physicians at her home here today for serious results of the nervous shock. Two hundred dancers were swirling in a furious two-step late last night at a Knights of Pythias assembly when Frank Nicola, aged 30, who was dancing with Miss Carlton, dropped dead of apoplexy. The music was hushed, and the dancers stopped while Nicola's body was borne out. Then all went home.

Mother-in-law Elopes, Too.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—When Howard E. Risher, of St. Louis, eloped with Miss Edna M. Boyle he took his prospective Chicago mother-in-law along with him. But she did not know anything about it.

Mrs. Mary Boyle, the mother-in-law, sat out in front of the church at Michigan City, Ind., while her daughter was being married within. Then the bride and groom came out and told her about it, also introducing Rev. Howard D. Borey, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, who performed the ceremony. Mr. Risher then sent a telegram to his father, Howard M. Risher, at Homestead, Pa., telling of his marriage and of his bride-whom his parents did not know.

Officers and cadets of the Argentine Republic practice ship Presidente Sarmiento, now anchored at Washington, today visited the Naval Academy, at Annapolis, Md., coming over by rail. After inspecting the buildings and grounds the officers dined at the home of Superintendent Bowyer, the cadets eating in the big mess hall as guests of the American midshipmen.

A Good Meal

It is a noticeable fact that beer is becoming more and more commonly used as a meal time beverage and particularly in the home. There are several good reasons for this: It "fits in" well with solid foods. It is a good appetizer. It helps digestion. Many drink it in place of coffee, because they find the latter injurious to them.

HOFBRAU BEER

Is a light brew with a full, rich flavor that finds great favor as a table beverage. The bottled product is most convenient for home use.
